

South Yorkshire police looking for missing teenager

Police in South Yorkshire are appealing for your help to find missing teenager Martina Lee Price from Barnsley who may have travelled to Edinburgh.

Martina, who is known as Tina, 15, was last seen at around 10.30am yesterday (Saturday 7 May) leaving her home address in Darfield.

The 15-year-old said that she was going to the local Co-op but did not return home.

Officers have received information that Martina could be trying to travel to Ireland and is the company of an adult male.

It is also possible that she will travel via the Edinburgh area.

Martina's family members, along with officers, are becoming increasingly concerned for her welfare and urge anyone who has seen or heard from her to contact police.

Martina is described as white, around 5ft 1ins, with brown eyes and long brown hair with blonde ends.

She was last seen wearing a grey top with the word 'pink' written on it, black and grey shorts and red Nike trainers.

Have you seen or heard from Martina? Do you know where she is?

Anyone with information is asked to contact South Yorkshire Police on 101 quoting incident 1279 of May 7 2016.
