

Video highlights problem of rubbish across the city

Have you noticed the plastic bags and other rubbish in our trees?

Well Edinburgh filmmaker Rhys Fullerton did and he has made a film about it.

He collected 110 clips and then cut it all down for the final edit. Filmed across Edinburgh's New Town, Broughton, Princes Street Gardens, the West End and Roseburn it is set to a song by William Gray taken from his fifth album, Flounce.
