

Alan Stubbs signs three year deal with Rotherham United

Alan Stubbs has left Hibs and joined Rotherham United on a three year deal. The news was broken on the Miller's website a few minutes ago.

Their statement reads: "Rotherham United can confirm that Alan Stubbs and John Doolan have resigned from their post as head coach and first team coach of Hibernian FC.

Rotherham United are delighted to confirm that the club has subsequently appointed Alan Stubbs as the new first team manager and John Doolan as assistant manager.

Both Alan and John have signed three-year contracts at AESSEAL New York Stadium.

The club will be officially confirming Alan and John at a press conference to be arranged in due course."
