

CCTV images released following Pilrig Street attack

Police have released a CCTV image of a man they wish to trace as part of an investigation into a serious assault which took place around 2 am on 24th April 2016 in the Pilrig Street area when a 31-year-old man was struck to the face and sustained a broken jaw.

Officers are eager to trace the man pictured, as he may be able to assist with inquiries.

He is described as a white man, 5 ft 8 inches tall, in his 20's, with a slim/medium build.

He had short blonde or ginger hair, an Edinburgh accent and was wearing dark clothing.

Detective Constable Iain Wallace of Gayfield said: "The victim was subjected to a violent and unprovoked assault while walking back from a night out with his friend.

"The man pictured is believed to be of significance to our investigation, and I'd urge anyone who may recognise him to come forward."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Police Scotland on 101 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.
