

Craigleith cycle path robbery investigation concludes

Police have now concluded their investigation into a report of a woman being assaulted and robbed on a cycle path between Craigleith and Davidson's Mains on Tuesday 21st June.

As a result of their inquiries it has now been established that no further police action is required.

The public are thanked for their assistance with this appeal.