

Edinburgh International Film Festival 2016 Saint Amour ***

[tweet_box design="default"]Deliciously naughty, mad-cap wine tour and road trip taken by father (Gerard Depardieu) and son (Benoit Poelvoorde) farmers in order to try and bond over their joint future.[/tweet_box]

Driver by their Parisian taxi driver (the dead-pan Vincent Lacoste) the couple bicker their way through various wine-growing regions to find understanding, self-knowledge and a different kind of happiness. Directors Benoit Delepine & Gustave Kervern capture some hilarious moments, complemented by a wonderful original score by Sebastien Tellier.