

Five things you need to know today

- Edinburgh South MP resigns Shadow Cabinet post
- Elton John
- Join the Harmony Choir
- EIFF is over but....
- Gorgie City Farm Fundraiser

Ian Murray MP for Edinburgh South resigned from the Shadow Cabinet in a morning of resignations yesterday which may yet spell the end of Jeremy Corbyn's leadership of the Labour Party.

Mr Murray said that the party needs new leadership. He was one of around 10 (there may be more of course!) resignations from the Shadow Cabinet.

The Elton John concert at Meadowbank may not have been an absolute sell-out with tickets going for double their face value right up to the wire, but it was in our view worth it. Read our review here.

Sign up here for a daily email from The Edinburgh Reporter

[mc4wp_form id="169103"]

The Harmony Choir project seeks to build on existing research that has shown that singing in a choir can have a positive impact on the singer's mental wellbeing.

The choir organiser is still looking for volunteers to take part in the choir and no previous singing experience is required. "It promises to be great fun and a great opportunity for people living locally to appear at the Fringe.

"Lothian residents who might be interested should get in touch with the organiser who can be contacted on 0131 651 5167 or by email HarmonyChoir@ed.ac.uk"

The 70th Edinburgh International Film Festival is over but you can read all of our reviews here.

What did you see? Did you like it? If you did do tell us why!

If you are reading this article in print and would like to visit The Edinburgh Reporter website then simply scan the QR code here with a smartphone or tablet.