

Five things you need to know today Edinburgh!

- The Edinburgh Reporter is publishing a paper!
- Concert for The Scottish Refugee Council
- Dazzle Ship Day Out
- LeithLate 16
- Could you volunteer with the Tool Library?

Get in touch with us to book a place in our newspaper which will be published next month.

We have room for a feature on your business, on you or what you are up to – just as long as it has something to do with Edinburgh and is happening in late July/August.

Email us now for more details!
editor@theedinburghreporter.co.uk

A benefit concert in aid of – The Scottish Refugee Council
– East Lothian Aid for Refugees
– RE-ACT Refugee Action Scotland

Astor Piazzolla's masterpiece

María de Buenos Aires

Canongate Kirk Edinburgh at 7.30pm

Thu 16 June 2016

All proceeds go to charity

Entry by donation on the door. No pre-booking required.
Unreserved seating

The Refugee Scotland Festival takes place 14-26 June 2016, for info about other events, please visit their website

A spokesperson for McFall's Chamber said: "Due to an unexpected cancellation very recently, we have been able to mount a special pop-up benefit concert in aid of the valuable work supporting refugees coming to this country. We are delighted to bring this beautiful music to the equally beautiful setting of Canongate Kirk, and hope that it encourages a full house of people looking to support the work of the Scottish Refugee Council, Refugee Action Scotland, and East Lothian Aid for Refugees. All ticket money goes to charity. Please tell your friends, and we look forward to seeing you there!"

You may recall that we told you about the Dazzle Ship a couple of weeks ago.

And here:

The Edinburgh Reporter News – Dazzle Ship Scotland from Phyllis Stephen on Vimeo.

Now you can have a look at it up close from the Vine Trust barge.

It is all happening in Leith these days it seems! First we had Hibs winning the Scottish Cup and now we have the Leith Festival which is on all week.

 On 23 June there is LeithLate 16. 100 artists, 25 venues and loads of events.

From mural tours to exhibitions there is plenty to see. This is a relatively new festival which is growing into an important part of the culture calendar.

Full details on their website.

The Edinburgh Tool Library (also in Leith!) is looking for new recruits!

 If you are reading this article in print and would like to visit The Edinburgh Reporter website then simply scan the QR code here with a smartphone or tablet.

Sign up here for a daily email from
The Edinburgh Reporter

[mc4wp_form id="169103"]