

Edinburgh City v Hibs – ticket information

Hibs face Edinburgh City tomorrow evening as the side prepare for the UEFA Europa League tie against Brondby or Valur Reykjavik on Thursday 14 July.

That match will be Neil Lennon's second in charge of Hibernian and his first in Edinburgh – effectively on Easter Road's doorstep at Meadowbank Stadium.

Tickets for the match are available in person at the Hibernian Ticket Office, online and via the Hibernian Call Centre.

Prices: Adult: £10: Concessions: £5 (Over 65/Under 18/Full-time students with a valid matriculation card)

Disabled Pricing is £5 each for disabled and carer (must be in receipt of Higher Rate DLA/Enhanced PIP to qualify for a carer). Please contact the Ticket Office directly (0131 656 7066, disabledtickets@hibernianfc.co.uk).

Fans should note that any tickets purchased online and via the Call Centre will have to be collected from the Hibernian Ticket Office on the day of the match.

Tickets will remain on sale until the Hibernian Ticket Office closes at 5pm on Thursday evening. There will be no option for Pay at the Gate at Meadowbank Stadium.
