

Gilded Balloon / Lisa Richards / Off The Kerb present Neil Delamere: Ctrl Alt Delamere

One of Ireland's top comedians is back in Edinburgh. After a couple of years away, Neil returns with show packed with more hilarious tall tales.

Includes tips on how to survive a bobsled ride and how to pretend you're enjoying a trip in an astronaut training centrifuge. There, there. We all need help, this show will make everything alright again.

Award-winning comedian Neil Delamere is one of the top acts working in the Irish comedy scene today, well known to audiences for his regular appearances on RTE and the BBC as well as his hilarious sell-out stand-up tours.

With stellar reviews as well as a number of platinum-selling DVDs under his belt, Neil has turned his attention to comedy documentaries, writing and presenting IFTA Award- and Celtic Media Award-winning TV programmes on the Vikings and St. Patrick. His four-part series on heroes from Ireland's past, Holding out for a Hero, was recently broadcast as part of RTE 2's autumn schedule. Never one to just sit around, Neil was also back in the hot seat with The Blame Game, the perennially popular BBC panel show, back for its 10th season at the end of 2015.

Venue: The Museum – Auditorium

Time: 21:00 (22:00)

Dates: 6th – 12th August, Preview 5th

Tickets: Preview £7.50, Shows £13 (£12)