

Our Pick of Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2016 – Macbeth

TWIST Theatre Company (The Way I See Theatre) presents Macbeth – a modern tale of lust for power, betrayal and murder within King Records, a thriving international music business based in London. With an R&B, Grime and Afro Beat vibe, along with street dance and a lot of attitude, this is Shakespeare meets Channel 4's smash hit hip-hop drama Empire.

TWIST is Hackney Empire's new graduate company, bringing the premiere of a musical adaptation of Shakespeare's Macbeth, set in the in the cut throat world of the British Music Industry.

By bringing to life Shakespeare's Macbeth with a mix of energy, passion and musical styles – Street, R&B, hip hop, afro beat, spoken word, and jazz – TWIST has created their own magic to inspire, challenge and connect with their audience.

TWIST is a creative and political platform for a dynamic and diverse group of young emerging artists, based in Hackney, to tell stories through their own eyes and in a way that feels true. Company members represent different cultures and backgrounds and share and combine their talents, tastes and influences.
