

Our Pick of Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2016 – Saturday Night Forever

Saturday Night Forever is a roller-coaster ride through Cardiff's night-life, as Lee, a gay man in his thirties living in the heart of the city, breaks up with one lover and resolves never to fall in love again. All around him people are drinking too much, dancing until the early hours and getting it while they can.

But when Lee receives an invitation to a friend's house-warming everything seems ripe for change, and it only takes seven hours, a bottle of vodka, and the devil on his shoulder for him to break his promise and fall back into the arms of a new admirer.

For a short while life is sweet, but after every Saturday night comes the cold reality of Sunday morning, and, as Lee cruelly discovers, nothing lasts forever.

Saturday Night Forever is written by award winning writer Roger Williams, who is well known for his work in television and theatre, and will be performed by actor Delme Thomas, who hails from Llanelli.

VENUE: Underbelly Med Quad (Venue 302)

DATES: Aug 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26 ,28

TIME: 19:10 (1 hour)

TICKETS: £10/£9; (Preview – £6)

Get your tickets here.