

Our Pick of Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2016 – Shlomo

International beatboxer Shlomo returns to Edinburgh with a new solo show as well as a family show.

A Guinness World Record breaker, Shlomo gave up astrophysics to perform his amazing vocal pyrotechnics. By pushing the boundaries of beatboxing, he has won global acclaim and worked with some of the biggest names in music including Damon Albarn, Martha Wainwright , Basement Jaxx and The Specials .

Shlomo is an acclaimed beatboxer and his incredibly energetic shows are like nothing you have seen before jaw dropping, inspirational and totally absorbing.

His latest undertaking is delving into the world of hackers and programmers. By coding his own customised software instrument, Shlomo continues to innovate and expand the possibilities of the human voice, looping technology and real time manipulation of sound.

VENUE: Underbelly, Cowgate (Venue 61)

DATES: Aug 15-16

TIME: Shlomo's Beatbox Adventure for Kids: 13:50 & 16:50 on Aug 15, 17:50 on Aug 16 (45 mins)

Shlomo: #NewRules: 22:10 on Aug 15 & 16 (1 hour)

TICKETS: Shlomo's Beatbox Adventure for Kids: £10

Shlomo: #NewRules: £14

Get your tickets here and here.