

Police circulate more photographs following Cup Final disturbance

Police investigating disturbances after Hibs' Scottish Cup final victory over Rangers at Hampden Park on 21st May have circulated another batch of photographs of suspects.

A spokesman for Police Scotland said: " Police in Glasgow are continuing to investigate acts of violence, disorder and vandalism that took place during the pitch incursion immediately following the final whistle at Hampden Park after the Scottish Cup final on Saturday, 21 May 2016.

"Police Scotland are releasing images of persons they are keen to trace, whom they believe may be able to assist them with their enquiries."

Anyone with information about those pictured can contact the incident room at Govan Police Office on 0141 532 5457, or via the dedicated mailbox address Scottishcupfinalpitchinvasion@scotland.pnn.police.uk.
