

Police release images following Hampden disturbance

Police have released images of persons that they are keen to trace following the disturbance at the end of the Scottish Cup Final on 21st May.

Anyone with information as to the identity of the men shown is asked to contact Police Scotland or Crimestoppers.

A force spokesman said: "Police in Glasgow are continuing to investigate acts of violence, disorder and vandalism that took place during the pitch incursion immediately following the final whistle at Hampden Park after the Scottish Cup final on Saturday May 21.

"Police Scotland are releasing images of persons they are keen to trace whom they believe may be able to assist them with their enquiries.

"Anyone with information about the identities of the persons pictured is asked to contact the Incident room at Govan Police Office, Greater Glasgow CID on 0141 532 5457."

Members of the public can also call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111, where information can be given anonymously, or use the dedicated email address set up by officers, scottishcupfinalpitchinvasion@scotland.pnn.police.uk.
