

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2016 – Just A Quick One

This original, mockumentary style comedy follows a day at Blackpool's most controversial café; 'Just A Quick One', coffee shop by day, male brothel by night.

Josie Rosebud, a fresh faced TV presenter, will introduce the sisters that attempt to run it together, despite not being able to agree on anything, and their eccentric staff; sex workers Ambrogio and Greg, Queen-mad cleaner Cassie and an unsuspecting work experience boy.

Witness the day's events and get ready for a bumpy ride. You can expect hot coffee, smutty innuendos and a mop that looks like Brian May.

See it at Spotlites, 22-26 George's Street (Venue 278). Performances take place from the 4th- 20th August (excluding the 14th) at 9:40 pm.

You can follow them on Twitter @Just_A_QuickOne

Tickets are available via the venue's website