

Nowak Signs for Hearts and Heads to Pittodrie

Hearts head to Aberdeen this afternoon hoping to record their first competitive domestic win of the season. They will be without Jamie Walker who serves the first of a two game suspension. However, included in the squad will be Polish defender Krystian Nowak who has joined Hearts from Pdobeskidzie Bielsko-Biala and has signed a two-year contract at Tynecastle.

Hearts have confirmed that over 1,000 tickets have been sold for the away end at Pittodrie. Aberdeen have now announced there will be cash gates in operation for the Maroon Army. Prices are below.

Adults – £25

Over 65s – £19

Over 75s/Students – £15

Under 18s – £10

Under 12s – £6

Read Mike Smith's match report in The Edinburgh Reporter tonight.