

Red Sky July announce headline show at The Caves, Edinburgh

☒ With their latest album 'The Truth and the Lie' reaching number 3 in the UK Country chart, Red Sky July will follow their summer festival appearances – which included Cornbury & Somerset Rocks with Jools Holland, with a headline show at The Caves, Edinburgh on September 21st.

Glaswegian guitarist Ally McErlaine tells us “As a band we absolutely love playing in Scotland as it is home to some of the world’s most passionate audiences!”

Earlier in 2016 Red Sky July performed at Britain’s C2C Festival at London’s O2 Arena and received praise for their classic songwriting, musicianship and harmonies from country and non-country critics alike. Country Music People gave their recent album 5/5 saying “The Truth and The Lie has everything to commend it, really good singing and harmonies, excellent lyrics, strong melodies and superb production”. R2 magazine also gave it 5 stars, stating that “Red Sky July continue to go from strength to strength.”

Watch a video of ‘Walking Country Song’ performed live on Edith Bowman’s BBC Radio Scotland ‘Quay Sessions’ here

Red Sky July are Ally McErlaine (Texas), Shelly Poole (Alisha’s Attic) and Charity Hair (The Alice Band). The band formed in 2009 and released their self-titled debut album in 2011. 2014’s ‘Shadowbirds’ followed. The band have been playlisted on BBC Radio 2, and have supported artists such as Steve Earle, Sheryl Crow, 10CC, Tom Jones and Jools Holland.

Festivals they have performed at include T in the Park, Isle of Wight

and Glastonbury. The band's achievements were recognised at the Scottish Music Awards where they were presented with a prestigious Tartan Clef award by Nordoff-Robbins Music Therapy.

Tickets: GigsInScotland