

Scotland Women's Under-17 squad announced for friendly tournament

Scotland will prepare for the UEFA Women's Under-17 Championship first qualifying round with a friendly tournament in Czech Republic next month.

Pauline Hamill has named an 18-player squad to take on the hosts as well as Spain and Italy in Tachov.

The squad includes Michaela McAlonie from Hearts' Ladies and Elena Santoyo-Brown from Boroughmuir Thistle.

The UEFA Women's Under-17 Championship campaign kicks-off in October, when Scotland host Kazakhstan, Croatia and France in the first qualifying round mini-tournament. Venue details will be confirmed soon.

Scotland squad for friendly tournament:

Goalkeepers

Shannon Burgon (Rangers)

Kiera Gibson (Celtic)

Defenders

Kimberley McAlpine (Central Girls Football Academy)

Nicole Cameron (Celtic)

Shaney McCabe (Central Girls Football Academy)

Leah Eddie (Central Girls Football Academy)

Michaela McAlonie (Hearts Ladies)

Lauren Brogan (Manchester City)

Midfielders

Jemma Marriott (Glasgow City)

Amy Muir (Rangers)

Kirstie McIntosh (Central Girls Football Academy)

Kaela McDonald-Nguah (Celtic)

Jamie- Lee Napier (Celtic)

Elena Santoyo-Brown (Boroughmuir Thistle)

Bethany McPherson (Aberdeen)

Forwards

Morgan Cross (Central Girls Football Academy)

Abby Callaghan (Celtic)

Megan Robb (Dundee United)

Fixtures

Spain v Scotland

Tuesday 6th September, kick-off 3 pm

Italy v Scotland

Thursday 8th September, kick-off 3 pm

Czech Rep v Scotland

Sunday 11th September, kick-off 11 am

All matches to be played in Tachov, Czech Republic. All kick-offs shown in local time.