

Witness appeal following Ormiston break-in

Police are investigating following a housebreaking at an address in Main Street, Ormiston.

The incident happened between Friday, August 12 and Monday, August 15 while the occupiers were on holiday. A number of items of jewellery and electrical items were taken.

Police are now investigating and are appealing to the public for information.

Inspector Andrew Harborow said: "The items taken were small and could have easily been concealed and carried away in a bag.

"We are eager to trace those responsible and would appeal for anyone with information to contact us immediately.

Those with information can contact Police Scotland on 101 or anonymously through Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
