

Manager and Player of the Month awards to Neil Lennon and Jason Cummings

Hibs 100% start to the league season has been recognised with monthly awards to Head Coach Neil Lennon and striker Jason Cummings.

The Easter Road side have won their first five games in the Scottish Championship, beating Falkirk, Dunfermline, St Mirren, Morton and Dumbarton, leaving them two points clear of second placed Queen of the South.

Cummings has scored an impressive six goals since he start of the campaign.

Lennon picks up the Ladbrokes Championship Manager of the Month award, while Cummings has been awarded with the Player of the Month trophy.

The last time Hibs won their first five league games was 70 years ago during season 1946/47 and the club aim to go on better against Ayr United on Saturday.
