

New furniture store creates local jobs

A brand new furniture store is opening at Fort Kinnaird this coming weekend. The new Oak Furniture Land shop will be the second outlet opened in Edinburgh, but this one is 1500 square metres and seven new jobs have been created.

The solid hardwood furniture on display might be anything from traditional to contemporary and there is exclusively designed furniture for every single room in the house.

The new superstore will also feature a www.sofastore.com concession with all the latest sofa trends and over 75 different ranges of high quality sofas and over 3,500 colour and size variations to choose from. There is an exclusively designed sofa to suit all tastes and budgets, from contemporary styles, to traditional leather and modern fabrics.

Alan Tombs, Regional Manager said : "We're delighted to be opening our second store in Edinburgh, this will take us to a total of nine stores in Scotland. Our Scottish customers have been loyal to us over the years and we are looking forward to extending our 100% solid hardwood furniture offering to customers in the region and making shopping our furniture ranges more accessible. We know when customers shop with us they return time and time again and we are looking forward to serving our Edinburgh customers for many years to come.”

For more information on the new store click here.