

Put your feet up with Edinburgh Leisure

While your little ones are occupied and active, parents and carers can put their feet up. (although we are sure there are other opportunities for the older generation to get active too – but just not in the soft play area!)

Customers signing up for an Edinburgh Leisure soft-play membership in October, will receive membership in November free.

Unlimited soft play costs £15.00 per month, so your little adventurers can enjoy endless fun in any of Edinburgh Leisure's three soft play venues across the city.

The state of the art facilities, Clambers at the Royal Commonwealth Pool, Tumbles at Portobello and Scrambles and Rock Tot Playroom at the EICA: Ratho are suitable for children up to 10 years, are clean and safe, with friendly staff on hand.

While the little ones are playing you could enjoy the facilities of their cafés at the same time. The cafés all sell healthy snacks and tasty treats.

To join, pop into your local soft play venue at Edinburgh Leisure and for further information visit: www.edinburghleisure.co.uk
