

Information for supporters attending Easter Road tomorrow

Hibs face Dundee United at Easter Road tomorrow with the game kicking off at 12noon.

Tickets will only be on sale from the Ticket Pods ahead of this game, which are in operation at the East, Famous Five and West Stands. The new West Stand Ticket Pod is located at the south end of the stand. Ticket pods are open from 10am.

Supporters can also purchase tickets online and use the print at home option until 90 minutes before kick-off.

The Ticket Office will only be dealing with ticket enquiries and disabled supporter ticket sales for Sunday's match.

Fans are advised to arrive early as the club are expecting a considerable walk-up for Sunday's match.

Tickets are priced at:

Adults – £22

Concessions – £12 (0-17 years, 65 or over and Students with a valid student matriculation card/proof must be shown for all concession tickets)

Dundee United supporters are advised that a cash only Ticket Pod will be in operation outside the South Stand from 10am.

The Hibernian Clubstore is open ahead of the match until 3:30pm.

There will be a collection for the Dnipro Kids ahead of this match, with a various staff and volunteers from the charity around the ground looking for donations for the charity to undertake their work.

20 children from Dnipropetrovsk will be attending today's game as part of their holiday to Scotland from Ukraine, in partnership with Dnipro Kids and Children of War.

The new-look Hibernian FC Programme, sponsored by Belmont Group, returns with Brian Graham on the cover.

Content for this edition includes; the story of Hibernian playing Dundee Hibernian in the Dundee side's first ever match, Paco Luna is under the spotlight as the Cult Hero, Pat Stanton recalls playing at Yankee Stadium in 1967 in Letter From America and there is an interview with former Hibernian and Dundee United player, and current Northern Ireland manager, Michael O'Neill.

Lucy Graham, Emma Brownlie and Jenna Fife all spoke ahead of the Hibernian Ladies' match against Bayern Munich and Fraser Murray also spoke about his aims for the season in the Development Squad section of the programme.

Each programme purchased for league matches will also now have a special Scottish Cup Winners Collectible Card, sponsored by Capital Cars, with Conrad Logan featuring as this week's player. A special thanks to Scott Boobis for designing the cards.

All of this and more is available to read, with the programme on sale around the ground ahead of kick-off and priced at £3.

Supporters have been challenged to race against the times set by Martin Boyle and a Zenos E10 supercar in the West Stand car park ahead of the game against Dundee United.

Two sports cars will be placed 18 yards apart and supporters of all ages can run between them until 11:45am for the chance to sprint at half-time and potentially win prizes. The top three from each age category will be selected to run during the interval of the match.

Behind the Goals will be open from 10am on Sunday, with alcoholic drinks being served from 11am. Soft drinks, hot drinks and breakfast rolls will be on sale from the time that the suite opens.

Entry to Behind the Goals is to those in possession of a match ticket, with under-18s allowed access to the Almond Suite.
