

Valvona & Crolla add Scottish gifts to their range of goods

The well-known city food and gifts emporium Valvona & Crolla has just added Scottish gifts by Clare O'Neill to their gift halls in Jenners.

Clare's designs are infused with heritage based on traditional luxury craftsmanship, and the range includes handmade bags, accessories, homewares, gifts and children's clothes.

A selection of the full range will be available from Valvona & Crolla from today.

The finest Scottish tweeds have been sourced from the Scottish Borders, using two different tweeds woven at Lovat Mill Tweed, (Hawick) and Heritage Tweed (Langholm).

All leathers used in the products are full grain leathers tanned in truly sumptuous colours and delicate leather skins to give the products a rich and luxurious finish.
