

What's on at the Lyceum – JUMPY

JUMPY stars Pauline Knowles in a comedy hit straight from the West End all about mid-life crisis, teenage rebellion and the relationships between mothers and daughters.

Hilary protested at Greenham Common now she has difficulty even getting her daughter to wear the right thing. Her job is in jeopardy, marriage in trouble and her best friend won't grow up.

If you recognise some of this then get your tickets now! If this is not your bag then there is a lot on at the Lyceum now under the direction of Artistic Director David Greig. See the full programme below.
