

'Best Five-Star Hotel in Scotland' is right here in Edinburgh

Five-star Edinburgh hotel, The Chester Residence, has won another coveted award this month and been named 'Best Five-Star Hotel in Scotland' in the trivago Awards 2017. This totals 24 awards to date for the luxury apartment based hotel, located in the city's stylish West End.

The hotel search website trivago.co.uk have released the results of their annual trivago Awards, using over 175 million aggregated hotel reviews and semantic analysis to determine the best-rated hotels in various categories in regions across the UK.

By analysing reviews aggregated from different sources across the web, trivago aims to award hotels on a basis which is accurate, comprehensive and impartial. The Chester Residence in Edinburgh, which came #1 in Scotland and #2 in the UK in last year's awards, is awarded the best in two categories this year: the best five-star accommodation and the best guest rooms, with rating scores of 94.72 and 93.61, respectively.

General Manager of The Chester Residence, Jill Darling, said: "This latest win is such great news for both our guests and our team. It recognises the team's exceptional hard work in ensuring each guest's stay is both unique and memorable and it's great that guests are taking the time to express their views regarding their experience. We are so proud to have such a loyal and hard-working team."

Johannes Thomas, Managing Director of trivago, comments, "We aggregate and analyse over 175 million hotel reviews from websites all over the world. This gives us strong insights into what hotels are particularly good at. Our trivago awards recognise hoteliers who deliver an exceptional experience to their guests, and we are proud and delighted to award those achievements.”

This adds to a list of 23 accolades won by The Chester Residence since opening in 2006, including last week’s Best Accommodation provider award at VisitScotland’s Thistle Awards 2016, as well as ‘No1 Luxury Hotel in the UK’ in the TripAdvisor Travellers’ Choice Awards 2015.

The Chester Residence comprises 23 unique, luxurious Georgian apartments in Edinburgh’s West End. Each apartment features the latest designer furnishings, state-of-the-art technology and luxury amenities. The Chester Residence provides guests with the benefits of serviced apartments combined with the luxurious glamour and facilities of a five-star hotel.
