

Beware of email parking scam

I received an email from UKPC who claim to have a parking ticket outstanding.

Sadly for them I wasn't driving a car that day so it immediately raised a concern.

Apart from the spelling error in the ticket, there is also a link in the email and according to others it may contain malware. So beware!