

CCTV images released following racial abuse in Musselburgh shop

Police Scotland have released an image of a man they wish to speak to regarding an incident which occurred in Lidl on Newhailes Road, Musselburgh at approximately 8.20pm on Saturday 30th April, where a member of staff was racially abused and assaulted.

The man is described as white, 35 – 45 years old, approximately 5 feet 10 inches tall, and spoke with a local accent. He was wearing a blue Adidas jumper, dark jeans and was in possession of a black rucksack.

Anyone who recognises this man should contact PC Kris MacLeod or PC Murray Legge of Musselburgh Police Station on 101. Alternatively, please call Crime stoppers on 0800 555 111 where information can be given anonymously.