

Head for Musselburgh Racecourse this week for the Saltire Raceday

Celebrate the run up to St Andrew's Day with the excitement of jump racing. The next meeting is on 24 November 2016 with the first race at 12.55pm. Doors open at 11:00am allowing you to have a leisurely start to your race day with lunch ranging from the Epperston Restaurant to the Fish and Chips package.

Racing afternoons are popular for corporate hospitality or something to consider for a Christmas party with a difference.

The racecourse is only 6 miles from Edinburgh City Centre with direct transport links and a courtesy bus from Wallyford and NewCraighall train stations.

For transport information click here. And remember the new East Coast Buses go right past the door!

Children 17 years and under are admitted FREE at Musselburgh Racecourse when accompanied by an adult.

Book your tickets here.