

Missing teenager traced in Edinburgh

Police have confirmed that missing teenager Alanis Kyle (19) has been traced safe and well in Edinburgh.

She left her home in Rockcliffe Path, Chapelhall, around 0700 hrs on Thursday morning, got into a taxi which took her to Airdrie Train Station, where she boarded the 7.20am train bound for Edinburgh.

Enquiries established that she got off the train at Waverley Train Station around 0815 hours on Thursday morning.

The public have been thanked for their assistance.