

Olly Murs to play Edinburgh Castle in 2017

✖ In yet another exciting announcement Olly Murs has confirmed that his 20 date tour will include an appearance on the esplanade at Edinburgh Castle.

Hot on the heels of Deacon Blue he will come to Edinburgh at the end of a UK Tour which will start in style at The Albert Hall. His Edinburgh concert takes place on 18 July 2017 on the way to Aberdeen and Inverness.

He rose to music fame after his 2009 appearance on X Factor, becoming the most successful solo artist to have started his career from the show.

His new album 24 HRS is the follow up to 'Never Been Better'.
