

Renewed appeal to trace missing Ashley Forster

Police are renewing their appeal for information to help trace 23-year-old Ashley Forster who was last seen in the Gardner's Crescent area around 1.10am on Friday 4 November.

She is believed to have been in The Jewel area of Craigmillar around 4.30pm on Saturday 5 November.

She is described as white, 5ft 2ins tall, slightly built, with straight shoulder-length dark-blonde hair and a fringe.

She is believed to be wearing black-rimmed glasses, a black Parka-type jacket, blue jeans and beige Ugg boots.

Ashley has a North-East English accent and is known to frequent the city centre area.

Sgt Chris Scott of Wester Hailes said: "We remain concerned for Ashley's welfare and are continuing to conduct enquiries to try and trace her safe and well.

"I'd ask anyone who may have seen Ashley, or has information about her current whereabouts, to get in touch."

Those with information can contact Police Scotland on 101.
