

Sainsbury's Christmas advert featuring James Corden

In this advert there are puppets, and there is James Corden. Somewhere there is also the idea of Christmas!

In the supermarket there are all sorts of goodies you can buy to make your Christmas taste good and to gift to your friends and family.

Perhaps you might also donate something this Christmas to the food bank.....is that the Greatest Gift?

You may also like to see behind the scenes!