

Teenager charged in connection with a series of malicious phone calls

Police have arrested and charged a 15-year-old boy in connection with a series of malicious phone calls.

A police spokesperson said: “The incidents happened between 7th and 31st October to a number of High Schools in Midlothian, Forth Valley, West Lothian and Edinburgh.

“He will be referred to the Children’s Reporter.”