

Veterans care group celebrate 100th with special concert

The choir at the Italian Chapel on Orkney

Glasgow Phoenix Choir will perform a special concert in Edinburgh to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Erskine, one of Scotland's providers of care for UK veterans and their spouses.

Erskine, founded in 1916, offers nursing, residential, respite and dementia care in four homes throughout Scotland.

The Edinburgh event is on Sunday 4, December at The Freemasons' Hall at 96 George Street, Edinburgh, EH2 3DH and the choir will be accompanied by guests from the Co-op Funeralcare Band.
