

All aboard the new number 22

✘ Lothian Buses has invested around £6 million in 25 new buses which it is now using on the number 22 route spanning the city from Leith to the Gyle.

There was a surprise guest on board when we went to see the new buses last week!

We had a chat with Managing Director Richard Hall about the new environmentally friendly buses :

http://www.theedinburghreporter.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2016/12/IMG_7055.mp4