

Focus on Stockbridge – Lilies and Dreams

Stockbridge is a little corner of the city where independent traders flourish.

One of these is JoJo Hernandez who owns Lilies & Dreams is herself a hard-working style icon with an eye for what you will just fall in love with.

✘ Walking in the door of her St Stephen Street shop you are met with an array of handbags from the soft-touch box clutches in a variety of designs (a bargain at £24.00) to quilted leather bags with chain shoulder straps (£72.00) and for those of you who never have a big enough bag the range of tote bags is endless!

There is the Nooki Abracadabra Tote in gold and silver, the ✘ Nooki Stefan Stag Tote in Black all reasonably priced at £120.00. And as well as these there are Vegan Leather Shopper Totes in gorgeous bright colours at £48.00.

✘ When you have bought your bag of course you may be tempted by the dresses and playsuits to wear with it! And then there are the accessories to add to the look. We are fond of the Cats' Eye sunglasses which seem amazing value at £12.00 a pair!

✘

And then there are the Milani Spike Heel Shoes – you could not fail to feel glamorous in these at parties!

Get down to see JoJo and put your fashion life on track.
