

Hearts Cup-Tie Switched

Hearts have announced that their William Hill Scottish Cup Fourth Round tie at Raith Rovers in the New Year has arranged for Sunday 22nd January 2017. The switch is to accommodate live television coverage from BBC Scotland. The kick-off for the game at Starks Park will be 1.05pm.

Hearts have also advised that tickets for this Saturday's Ladbrokes Premiership game with Rangers at Ibrox Stadium – presently available to supporters with 165+ loyalty points – will be available to supporters with 130+ loyalty points from 9.00am on Tuesday morning. Ticket prices are:

Adults: £27; Over 65s: £20; Under 18s: £20; Under 16s: £8

Tickets can be purchased through the club's three sales channels: From the Hearts Ticket Centre (located under the Wheatfield Stand), online at Hearts eTickets and over the phone by calling 0333 043 1874, option 1.

Meanwhile, Hearts Under 20 side were defeated 5-2 by Rangers on Sunday in the Scottish Youth Cup fourth round at the Oriam.

There is still no official news on who Hearts new Head Coach will be but speculation is pointing to Ian Cathro, the Newcastle United coach being the man the Gorgie club want to appoint. Director of Football Craig Levein worked with Cathro when the pair were at Dundee United. An announcement is expected later this week.
