

At the Traverse – Locker Room Talk

✘ In response to some of the Trump rhetoric during the US election campaign, Gary McNair is writing a show which will feature honest conversations with men about women.

The writers now needs your help with his work in progress called Locker Room Talk.

The conversation will be staged during the weekend 17 and 18 February, but McNair would like your help in finding out what others have said.

If you have any examples of Locker Room Talk then share them with him at lockerroomtalkshow2017@gmail.com
