

Bookatable awards for many Edinburgh eateries

The online booking service Bookatable by Michelin has chosen la crème de la crème of Edinburgh restaurants based on verified customer reviews and ratings.

The gongs are split between Edinburgh and Glasgow, with The Witchery taking top place here in the capital, and honourable mentions for The Forth Floor Restaurant at Harvey Nichols, Cafe St Honoré, The Tower Restaurant, Galvin Brasserie de Luxe and the George Street Bar & Grill.

Michel Cassius, CEO of Bookatable said: “We’re pleased to announce the third annual Bookatable Awards. These awards are particularly special to the restaurant industry because they are granted by the restaurant diners themselves. We take pride in the fact that diners can be inspired by our trusted ratings and reviews; and with an increase of 125% reviews YOY, it’s clear to see that consumer reviews continue to play a vital role in the decision-making process for both restaurants and diners alike”.
