

Got a good idea? Enter the 2017 Edinburgh Mini Maker Faire

The Edinburgh International Science Festival culminates on 16 April 2017 with a great day long celebration when would-be inventors show off their wares.

At Summerhall from 10am till 5pm there will be opportunities for the creative among you to get involved as exhibitors, stallholders, workshop providers and speakers.

It is billed as a networking type of event when you might just meet the person who can help you bring your invention to life. You have to apply by 31 January to get involved.

This video will give you a flavour of what is on offer:
