

Ice Hockey – Dobron under scrutiny by discipline bosses

Edinburgh Capitals' player/coach Michal Dobron is under review by the Department of Player Safety (DOPS) after receiving a match penalty in Sunday's home defeat by Fife Flyers.

The decision on the slew footing penalty is expected on Wednesday afternoon and could impact on this weekend's fixtures.

Edinburgh, who remain bottom of the ten-strong Elite League table, are due to host Manchester Storm on Sunday (6pm) in their only game of the weekend.
