

Missing mother and son traced safe and well in Edinburgh

A mother and son who were reported missing from Auldearn, have been traced safe and well by police officers in Edinburgh.

Linzi Davis (36) and River Bain (8) were believed to have travelled to the capital yesterday.

Police have thanked members of the public and the media for their assistance with this matter.