The Edinburgh International Harp Festival is now in its 36th year.

From Friday 31st March to Wednesday 5th April 2017, harpists from throughout the world will gather to celebrate all aspects of the harp with a host of concerts, courses and workshops in a welcoming and inclusive environment at what is regarded the friendliest harp festival in the world.

Festival 2017 highlights include world renowned harpist Catrin Finch (Wales, previous Royal harpist to HRH Prince of Wales) performing with Edinburgh's Mr McFalls Chamber, the Corrina Hewat Quartet (Scotland), Laoise Kelly and the Albeiz Trio (Ireland), Tristan le Govic (Brittany) and the Rachel Hair Trio (Scotland).
