

Edinburgh's Casino Scene

✖ Gambling in Edinburgh – Discover the great casinos in Edinburgh and some other great attractions in our capital city.

Edinburgh's Casino Scene

Edinburgh may be famous for a castle and even a military tattoo, the city's not so well known for their casino venues. There are just a few casinos operating in the city, most of which are part of the Genting chain.

Edinburgh attracts tourists who are interested in sport and culture, but it is not yet Las Vegas!

Although there are not many gambling venues in Edinburgh, those that exist are popular and provide access to many of the favourite gambling games. These top-rated casinos offer the glamorous gambling experience that visitors seek.

Ther top casinos in Edinburgh include the Genting Casino. This casino may not focus on glitz and glamour as much as other venues, but it does offer a great night out. With friendly dealers manning the table, card games and other more unusual games, players can enjoy a casual night of gambling. This establishment is right in the heart of the city and is a spacious casino with fifteen games tables, many slot machines and a bar. It is open six days a week.

The other popular casino in Edinburgh is the Maybury Casino, which has a limited number of slot games, but there are 12 gaming tables which offer intense gambling action. At the Maybury, players can enjoy roulette, blackjack and poker and there are also some great Texas Hold Em tables offered. This casino is situated just one mile from the airport.

Casino Recommendations

Gambling can be a fun pastime for visitors to Scotland, and there are some great venues to be enjoyed. Visitors will find top quality casinos and resorts that offer amazing games and great accommodations.

The top rated location based on TripAdvisor's recommendations is Grosvenor Casino, offering a late night bar, great roulette and blackjack tables and popular slot games. Another highly recommended venue is Genting Club Fountainpark, a casino that offers tournaments every day of the week as well as any table and card games.

Next on the list is Genting Casino Leith. Though a smaller venue than the others, the selection of games is impressive and the casino is known for its friendly staff.

Finally, there is Genting Casino York Place, one of the oldest operating casinos in Scotland. This casino is home to American Roulette, Three Card Poker, Blackjack and more, and it is located in the heart of the city.

Not ready to spend time in one of these casinos? There is always the option of relaxing back at the hotel and enjoying amazing online games, such as those offered at the best online casino PlayOJO, featuring real money table and card games and a huge selection of slots.

Other Edinburgh Attractions

Visiting casinos might not be your cup of tea when visiting the capital.

Happily, there are plenty of things to do in Edinburgh, from having a night at the movies to a night on the town at local bars and pubs.

The city is home to great shopping on Princes Street and there are stylish and upmarket stores on George Street.

Looking for a night out? Try one of the great theatres in the city or enjoy dancing and music at The Usher Hall or The Jam House.

Edinburgh is full of restaurants with new ones opening each month and some of the top rated Scottish restaurants are located in the heart of the city, including these: George Street Bar and Grill, A Room in the West End, Forage & Chatter, The Dogs Kitchen Bar, The Scotch Malt Whisky Society, The Ox and The Walnut.