

Half term – places available at Edinburgh Leisure Holiday Clubs

With half term coming up you may be wondering how to deal with childcare – or just making your children busy over the few days off school.

Edinburgh Leisure still has a few places available at all their holiday clubs, being run at four of their venues across the city. Contact the individual venues to book but don't leave it too late as there are only a few places left at each.

Every day is packed full of games, sports, arts, crafts, drama, challenges and educational activities – for just £145 per week. Daily bookings are also available for £35 per day.

Available days can be booked at:

Craiglockhart Leisure and Tennis Centre – Wednesday, Thursday, Friday

Drumrae Leisure Centre – Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday

Gracemount Leisure Centre – Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday (day and week bookings)

Royal Commonwealth Pool – Friday

The Holiday Club will run at these leisure centres from 13-17 February 2017 (9am to 5pm) – with early drop off from 8am and late pick up until 6pm – perfect for working parents.

And if you're thinking ahead, Holiday Clubs for other holidays throughout the city are also now available to be booked.

And for early birds, there's a 10% discount.
