

Hockey – Forsyth names squad for French lesson

Derek Forsyth stressing a key point to Scotland players during a camp in England

Scotland have selected a 20-strong squad for Test matches against France in Le Touquet, from 12 to 17 February as they prepare for World League 2 from 11 to 19 March in Belfast.

There the Scots will face France, Poland and Wales in Pool B and Derek Forsyth, Scotland men's head coach, said: "The games against France will be a good test ahead of World League 2 in Belfast.

"The camp in France follows a good camp in Spain and selection will be made following these two solid sets of test matches."

Scotland: Wei Adams (Canterbury), Russell Anderson (Cannock), Tim Atkins (Reading), Michael Bremner (Klipper THC), Gavin Byers, Ben Cosgrove (Grove Menzieshill), Patrick Christie (Durham University), Dan Coultas, David Forrester, Jamie Wong (Edinburgh University), Callum Duke (Hillhead), Alan Forsyth, Willie Marshall, Nick Parkes (Surbiton), Cammy Fraser, Duncan Riddell (Grange), Ed Greaves (Nurnberger), Sean Hadfield (Bowden), Hamish Imrie (Schaerweijde), Lee Morton (Kelburne).
