

On the hunt for the perfect backpack

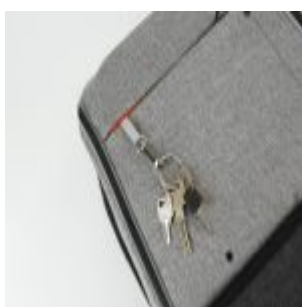

This new backpack which you may see The Edinburgh Reporter using at the moment is part of a Kickstarter campaign which is just about to close in the next few days.

I am always on the hunt for the perfect backpack and so I hope to tell you more after a few days trial! The backpack just arrived in Edinburgh this morning from Hong Kong, and it looks smart but will have to be pretty good to take the place of the KATA bag I have been using for some time.

The designer of the Udee backpack says it has something for everyone. The versatile and user-friendly design is equipped with 19 features perfect for frequent travellers, outdoor enthusiasts, and those like us who work remotely.

So I am trying it out – feel free to ask about it when you see me!

The 19 features include:

- 1. Charging port*
- 2. Earphone port*
- 3. Weight reduce*
- 4. Anti-theft*
- 5. Safety LED light*
- 6. Portable cooler*
- 7. Photography bag*
- 8. Water proof*
- 9. Phone pocket*
- 10. Power bank pocket*
