

Three arrested after cocaine seizure in Tranent

Police in East Lothian have arrested and charged two men, aged 38 and 34 and a woman aged 34 on misuse of drugs charges following a search of a property in Tranent on Thursday 26th January.

During the search of the property in Henderson Gardens, a quantity of cocaine was recovered worth around £30 along with a four-figure sum of cash, a air weapon, mobile phones and two sets of scales.

The three will appear in court at a later date.
